DIGITAL INSIGHT BOARD MEMBER ESTABLISHES 10B5-1 TRADING PLAN

CALABASAS, Calif., Aug 23, 2004 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX/ -- Digital Insight(R) Corp. (Nasdaq: DGIN) (www.digitalinsight.com), the leading online banking provider, announced today that John Dorman, a member of its Board of Directors, has adopted a pre-arranged stock trading plan as part of his long-term strategy for asset diversification and liquidity. Under his Rule 10b5-1 Plan, Dorman may sell up to 428,000 shares over a period of approximately 12 months, including shares that may be acquired through the exercise of stock options that are set to expire in the first quarter of 2005.

The stock trading plan was adopted in accordance with guidelines specified under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and Digital Insight's policies regarding stock transactions among insiders. Rule 10b5-1 allows corporate officers and directors to adopt written, pre-arranged stock trading plans when they do not have material, non-public information. These plans allow insiders to gradually diversify their investment portfolios over time. In addition, Rule 10b5-1 plans establish pre-determined trading parameters that do not permit the individual adopting the plan to exercise any subsequent influence over the execution of trading activities.
